The Big Picture: Why Awareness Matters

“ I've learned throughout the years that no one wants to talk about what I do for a living.

Getting folks energized about sexual violence prevention is not easy. ”

SARA CHERRY, ADVOCACY MANAGER
AT MOSAIC GEORGIA

April is Sexual Assault Awareness Month and Child Abuse Prevention Month

Mosaic Georgia is participating in a variety of events. Click here to learn more about all that's happening in April to raise awareness.

From her work as an advocate for the past 5 years, Sara Cherry knows first hand that raising awareness on a difficult topic is not easy--but it's vitally important. Because awareness leads to conversations, and conversations lead to change. Hear her thoughts on what April means as a month of awareness and how that translates to an annual commitment to prevent future violence.

Making Mosaic: The People Behind Our Mission

A fun fact, interesting tidbit, or compelling story about the people at the heart of our organization.

We asked Maryam Jordan, who leads Mosaic Georgia's professional education and training services, What is your favorite app on your phone and why?

"My favorite app on my phone is iTunes because I love music. Listening to music can transport you anywhere and can at times defy space and time."

Your donation is the strongest way to help empower those who have been impacted by sexual violence. Mosaic Georgia's myriad of services are free of charge. These donations allow us to continue this crucial support as well as enhance our offerings to the community. We are grateful for your support!
