Someone's Gotta Say It

Straight Talk About Tough Topics

from Executive Director Marina Sampanes Peed

Kindred Spirits Work to End Gender-Based Violence Around the World

In October, Mosaic Georgia had the privilege of hosting a learning exchange with 30 public health practitioners from 21 countries across Africa, Asia, and the Americas, organized by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)'s Global Health Center – HIV Prevention Branch. The sounds of hope, resilience, and persistence rang loud and clear.....Continue reading

Abuse Occurs in Ways We Least Expect: Keeping Children Safe at the Holidays

As the holidays are upon us, families and friends will gather around tables to share meals and spend time in each other's company. For some, the holidays are filled with anxiety, fear, and potentially further harm. Over 90% of child sexual abuse victims know their abuser. As hard as it is to fathom, there is a disturbing possibility that a perpetrator could be involved in your holiday traditions...Continue reading

Parts of the Whole: Mosaic in Action

Snapshot of a Successful Masterpieces Event

The results are in! With over 100 guests we raised an incredible $35,000. Over $8,000 of that was from the sale of more than 54 beautiful masterpieces!

A huge shoutout to all the talented artists who generously contributed their work. You made this event a true success.

If you missed Masterpieces but would still like to support, please donate here.

Reflecting on Our Team

None of us, including me, ever do great things. But we can all do small things, with great love, and together we can do something wonderful.

-Mother Teresa

We are grateful for our incredible team all year long. Yet as the year wraps, we are drawn to reflect upon the stellar group of individuals that make up Mosaic Georgia.
